

The Wisest Counsel

Seek not for recognition,
Hunger not for fame,
Be a humble presence,
Your ego mind disclaim.

When you are there with others,
A good listener, try to be,
And when you offer counsel,
Be joined in Mind with Me.

Your counsel will be wise, dear,
If someone asks your view,
Listen to what I tell you,
To help that one get through.

Each life is filled with questions,
Each life so precious there,
Valued beyond measure,
I have so much to share.

So witness to My Presence,
Tell how it's been for you,
That I'm directly available,
With healing love so true.

This is the wisest counsel,
That ever you could give,
It is the key to life itself,
I'll show each how to live.

We'll take each step together,
Alone, you'll never be,
Bound as One forever,
With radiant love are we.
