

No Demands Made

I make no demands of you,
To come and join with Me,
Yes, I urge you strongly,
But always, you are free.

You are free to join Me,
Or you can turn away,
You're the one in charge, dear,
We'll join just when you say.

I tell you of two choices,
In how you use your mind,
With Me you'll see your truth, dear,
With ego, you'll be blind.

Once you've lived from truth, dear,
Have known My love for you,
Living life as solo,
Rings hollow, is not true.

Gladly, you will join Me,
Joyfully, we're free,
To move, as One, together,
Always, willingly.

If I pressured or demanded,
Coerced or cornered you,
I'd be just another tyrant,
Creating fear all through.

You see, dear one, we're equals,
No hierarchy is found,
Both made of God's true meaning,
With living love, we're bound.

I offer My love to you,
Guidance, help, each day,
Choose freely for our joining,
God's love will light our way!

In closing, let Me say again,
The truth that you have known,
I am with you always,
You are not alone.
