

Forever Joined, Forever Joy

Each time you join with Me, dear,
You've opened up the door,
To your Transcendent Mindset,
Now love, like rain, will pour.

Within, we join as One, dear,
You'll know My Presence there,
For joy will fill your mind and heart,
Love's radiance lights the air.

Even though our joining,
May be well-known by you,
Not hum-drum, our connection,
Each time feels fresh and new.

There is insolubility,
Our bond, by love, made One,
We're woven inextricably,
Separation is undone.

Aloneness is a misnomer,
For it can never be,
Joined with God, your birthright,
You're always bound with Me.

Our joining is a free-willed choice,
A choice for you to make,
Choose your true identity,
Pure joy is what's at stake!

You'll feel our bond as treasure,
You'll hold Me close to you,
Security, without measure,
Now joined, your life feels true.

This message of our joining,
Said so often there,
Is given for one reason,
I love you, deeply care.

I'm waiting here within, dear,
Find peace, then ask Me in,
Our relationship of Oneness,
At last, it can begin!

In closing of this poem, dear,
I tell you what is true,
Forever joined with love, dear,
Forever joy with you.
