

The Final Recognition

The final recognition,
Of what the truth must be,
Comes when you live joined, dear,
In mind, as One, with Me.

The verity you find here,
Shines bright as what is real,
The love that lights the way there,
Redeems, renews—will heal.

The final recognition,
That love is what you are,
Fills your life with meaning,
As One with God, His star.

No more a chance experience,
A sometime happening,
My Presence is there always,
Constant love I bring.

The final recognition,
That you are not alone,
Releases a great burden,
Now joy is what is known.

Recognize I love you,
Verily I say,
I am with you always,
This is truth's final way!
