

Divinity Unfolding

Divinity unfolding,
That's who and what you are,
You're living love so perfect,
You are God's shining star.

You say, "I'm just a human,
A sinner through and through,
Guilty of all kinds of sins,
Divine? It can't be true. "

I tell you you're divine dear,
God's love's what you're made of,
The substance of creation,
The divinity of love.

Let go of false beliefs, dear,
That you're dung thrown on a heap,
A mass of guilty flesh there,
Unclean, not fit to keep.

You beg for God's forgiveness,
"Please God, my sins erase,
Free me from unrighteousness,
Cleanse me by your grace."

Your sins came forth from ego,
A faulty point of view,
Dismiss this false intruder,
"Tis just defenses spew.

Just claim your true inheritance,
God's love through Transcendent Mind,
'Tis yours as gift forever,
Your divinity you'll find.

I claim you as My Own, dear,
Intertwined inseparably,
In humble joy together,
As One Divinity.
