

The Solidarity of Oneness

When we are joined together,
And move each day as One,
We are God's open portal,
His will, through love, is done.

The rightness of our joining,
Brings solidarity,
Here is the firm foundation,
God's rock of purity.

The strength of steel, yet gentle,
As One, the great I AM,
Fit for any storms that come,
Yet saves the wandering lamb.

It is a daily choice to make,
To turn within to Me,
And give up ego's dithering,
Choose love's transcendency.

It will not take convincing,
For Oneness feels so right,
To go alone's like choosing,
Blindness over sight.

Right now I offer to you
True solidarity,
I'm not a whimsical partner,
I'm there with certainty.

I am your firm foundation,
The truth of whom you are,
Joined as One together,
You are God's shining star.

The choice is yours to make, dear,
Give up the choice to roam,
Come and find your Oneness,
With Me, you are at home.

In closing of this poem, dear,
I'll state what's now well known,
I am with you always,
You are not alone!
