

A Restorative Connection

A restorative connection,
Is what you have with Me,
Restored to your transcendence,
Your originality.

Mind in that quiet place within,
When you have found your peace,
And asked Me to be with you,
Aloneness now will cease.

Connected and together,
With love our sacred bond,
This love, nothing will sever,
This lifetime and beyond.

As restoration happens,
You're restored to whom you are,
To whom you've always been, dear,
God's child, His radiant star.

You are that very place where,
God's meaning comes on through,
His love and light shine's brightly forth,
Making all things new.

Open up to Me, dear,
Let's join right now as One,
Restored to truth at long last,
Now falsity is done.

'Twill be like coming home, dear,
So right, so sound, so free,
You'll smile, shed tears of joy, there,
Here's where you're meant to be.

I'm calling out quite clearly,
My intention now I state,
To live as One with you, dear,
With open arms, I wait.

In closing let Me tell you
I love you as My Own,
I am with you always,
You are not alone.
