

I Know You

I know just who you are, dear,
Your true identity,
I've known you for ten thousand years,
Throughout earth's history.

This lifetime's one of many,
We've lived as One before,
Each epoch has a story,
A tale of what you bore.

I've known you as an ancient one,
As peasant, and as king,
You've known poverty and riches,
You've known most everything.

Each lifetime you discovered,
That you were not alone,
You found My love within you,
And that is how you've grown!

So now you're in this moment,
With joy, you turn to Me,
There is no you alone, dear,
We're sacred Unity!

I know your true heredity,
I know just who you are,
Radiant there in love and light,
You are God's shining star!

In closing, let Me state again,
I know you as My Own,
I will never leave you,
You are not alone!
