

A Peaceful Transition

A transition means a change,
To what's long overdue,
A call to bring in freshness,
To move to what is true.

The old has served its purpose,
No longer meets the need,
Gladly now, you leave it,
You hasten to proceed.

Proceed to what you've chosen,
To what now is your will,
You focus on what's next there,
And how this will fulfill.

You've made a choice for Me, dear,
Ego, you've let go,
Aloneness now is gone, there,
Together, we will grow.

Transitioning to truth, dear,
To whom you really are,
Awakens you to Oneness,
You are God's shining star.

You are God's point of light there,
His meaning's yours to give,
Let living love shine through you,
Your purpose, now to live.

To live and show those 'round you,
What our love has meant,
That they are One with us, there,
That this is God's intent.

If you've not made the choice yet,
To join with Me in Mind,
A Love that surpasses all, there,
Waits, for you to find.

This is your greatest choice to make,
Life-changing it will be,
Let's join as One together,
Through all eternity!
