

A Choice to Make

There is a choice that you must make,
As life is lived each day,
A choice that makes a difference,
In what will point the way.

You see, you are the chooser,
You're gifted with free will,
Given without conditions,
So that you can fill,

What you desire most there,
It's up to you to find,
What gives your life its meaning,
What brings you Peace of Mind.

The choice is truly simple,
Once the truth you know,
That you can join within to Me,
In peace, God's Love will flow.

Aloneness or together,
One or the other there,
A mind alone is empty,
No roots, no fruit to bear,

A Mind that's joined in Oneness,
Connected to its Source,
Will yield that Love that Liveth,
God's Will it will bring forth.

Yes, you are the chooser,
You're God's point of light, His Star,
Right there, you bring His Meaning,
Choose whom you really are.

Make the choice for Oneness,
Together, there we'll be,
In joy and love forever,
Throughout eternity.
