

As You Open to Me

Let your tension go, there,
No need to be uptight,
Relax into relationship,
In 'togetherness' find delight.

I'll give you what you need to know,
And what to say and do,
Just open to your Wholeness,
Let love, your fear, subdue.

Take a deep breath now, dear,
Let a smile light up your face,
You're wrapped up in My arms of love,
A safe and sacred space.

Time is not an issue,
Hurry and rush—no need,
No value in fast action,
There's joy without great speed.

The days we spend together,
And that is everyday,
Are days that we can treasure,
Love's light will lead the way.

Take one step at a time, dear,
No judgement will be made,
You're not held up to scrutiny,
This teacher does not grade.

It's not in your accomplishments,
That I respond to you,
It's as you open to Me,
My Presence comes on through.

Understand you're joined, there,
With Me, inextricably,
One Movement of our Source, dear,
One Sacred Unity.

Find peace and ask Me in, dear,
This simple request is made.
Relax into relationship,
With love, our path, is laid.

In closing, let Me tell you,
What you by now have known,
I am with you always,
You are not alone.
