

Be Still and Know

Be still and know that I am there,
Let your anxiety go,
Let not your heart be troubled,
I'm here, for you to know.

Know that I love you deeply,
Know that I really care,
Know that what e're befalls you,
You're not alone to bear,

The ego's deliberate pitfalls,
Its slight of hand, its snares,
A trickster and a liar—
Sheep's clothing's what it wears.

My Presence is not earned there,
No payment will there be,
I'm not yours as transaction —
No 'tit for tat' for Me.

If cost is not a question,
No price and no demand,
Why not open to Me,
Why not take My hand?

Why not find your peace there,
Find stillness, so you may,
Invite Me in to guide you —
To help you find the way.

The way to truth is through Me,
Alone, it can't be found,
You must join with Transcendence,
With Spirit, truth is bound.

Truth is what you're after—
Who you really are,
Joined with God forever,
His Point of Light, His Star.

If ego's never chosen,
Instead, you choose for Me,
You'll waken to your Oneness,
What joy, for All, you'll see.

Right now, I ask you, dear one,
My arms are open wide,
Come home to where your love is,
In peace, let us abide.
