

Fulfilling the Promise

I made a promise long ago,
A promise made for you,
That I would be there always,
To this I have stayed true.

In Spirit I am present,
Available in Mind,
When joined with your Transcendence,
In peace you'll truly find,

A Friend unlike no other,
No other can compare,
Whose constancy of love for you,
And willingness to share,

Provides God's very meaning,
In living love you'll grow,
In understanding who you are,
God's own you'll come to know.

You'll know My constant Presence,
So intertwined are we,
That separation will be gone,
With all its falsity.

We'll move as One together,
Each day anew we'll find,
A fullness without measure,
Embraced by ties that bind.

So if you're feeling all alone,
And know not what to do,
Just ask Me in for friendship,
I'm here in Mind for you!

This poem's a declaration,
A promise I renew,
I pledge and open to you,
My love and All that's true.

In closing I would urge you,
Don't push this love aside,
Its gift is all transforming,
In joy we will abide!

12/27/2020 Sharing is encouraged, but please acknowledge the website.
Thanks.

