

I Am With Thee

Here I am in sweet repose,
The night draws nigh and day doth close.

And in the radiant dusk of day,
Before the stars light up the way,

I turn to Thee.

And in this turning there I see,
A radiant light inside of me,

And in this light I feel a glow,
Of love and light and joy! And so,

The day doth end with such great peace,
I feel the boundless way and cease,

To be alone. I am with Thee.
