

I Ask You, Lord

*I ask you, Lord, are you there?
I go within to hear,
I seek your very Presence,
Your words of love, so dear.*

*I ask you, Lord, am I alone?
Abide with me this day,
I seek your reassurance—
That you've not gone away.*

*I ask you, Lord, have I done wrong?
Let guilt's sting not intrude,
Nor hinder love's redemption—
With you, I am renewed.*

*I ask you, Lord, is change in store?
Let love fill up fear's space,
We'll be as one together—
Trusting in God's grace.*

*I ask you, Lord, what should I do?
I know, Lord, what is true,
To awaken All to Oneness,
I give my life to You.*

*I ask you, Lord, just one more thing?
Please give to readers all,
This witness to your Presence,
Tell them to heed your call.*

*Tell them there's nothing greater,
Than relationship with You,
Such joy will they encounter,
God's love so pure and true!*
