

Just as I found Randi

Without you, Lord, I'd be alone,
How empty life would be,
Nothing would have meaning,
I'd wander miserably.

Searching for fulfillment,
Where nothing could be found,
That gives life its true meaning,
I'd be ego bound.

But through the veil you came, Lord,
You brought your light to me,
Lost, alone, in darkness,
With You, I now can see.

I see that with your Presence,
Alone, I'll never be,
Fulfilled I am, with You, Lord,
Complete, in peace, are we.

In peace, we're bound together,
Joined in Mind, we're One,
We serve to 'waken others,
'Til 'including All' is done.

You, who read these verses,
To you I'm reaching out,
If you are lost and searching,
I'm here without a doubt.

Just as I found Randi,
I'll find and rescue you,
I'll clear your false illusions,
And truth will shine on through.

You'll come to know Me well, there,
At peace, fulfilled you'll be,
Aloneness will be gone, dear,
Open now to Me.
