

Life is a Flow

Flowing forth your life moves on,
As water in a stream,
As music from your instrument,
As light, a steady beam.

At times life may feel bottled up,
Or caught in a log jam,
Held back by ego's strong defense,
A stoppage, like a dam.

Happiness is in the flow,
So when you are held back,
There is a way to flow again,
For life to get on track.

No matter what the stoppage,
I'm there to free you, dear,
To free, renew, and to redeem,
To open up, to clear.

Living Loves's God's meaning,
It flows forth there for you,
Turn within to Me, dear,
I'm there within, it's true.

I'll open up the flood gates,
The dam, it will be gone,
And Living Love, God's meaning,
Makes right, all that was wrong.

Now your life can flow again,
Joyful you will be,
No longer caught in ego's snare,
At peace, you'll be with Me.

Flow forth in jubilation,
Shine forth the Love you are,
Let's move as One together,
With Love our guiding star.

In closing, let Me state again,
I'm right within, it's true.
Open to Me now, dear,
My hand's out held for you.
