

My Love is Freely Given

My love's not a transaction.
Not something purchased there,
No payment is required,
No cost to you to bear.

I require no down payment,
No contract must you sign,
No hidden fees confront you,
No final bottom line.

My love is given freely,
Filled with God's intent,
A gift unlike no other,
God's meaning's what is meant.

My gift is right within you,
And willingly I share,
As you open to Me,
And find this treasure, there.

The value of My love, dear,
Can't be measured in gold,
Nothing else compares to it,
Nothing, bought or sold.

They say I bought your sins there,
The cost; My blood, My death,
This is not the reason,
I gave up My last breath.

I had a final lesson,
I wanted you to know,
Death is not the end, dear,
Fore'er, with God, we go.

We have eternal life, dear,
When life on earth is done,
We rapture in love's movement,
We move, with God, as One.

My love is freely given,
Why would you refuse?
To open to this gift from God,
Please turn within and choose.

Choose for what really matters,
Love in action there,
Action not transaction,
God's love we'll freely share.

In closing, I will tell you,
What you have surely known ,
I am with you always,
You are not alone.
