

~ No Greater Love ~

I came to earth to give you,
A gift that you will see,
Merits your attention,
For what it claims to be.

It claims your full redemption,
From what mankind has done,
And brings you back to Wholeness,
Each daughter and each son.

It melts away the hardness,
Of walls that you have built,
To give you self protection,
From shame and fear and guilt.

This gift is there within you,
My role is there to be,
A guide, a friend, to show the way,
To find this gift, so we,

May join as One together,
The One includes the All,
And rapture in His glory,
And answer to His call.

This gift for you is living love,
It's been 'you' all the time,
And now you know it's who you are,
Your truth, your joy, sublime.

I love you with the greatest love,
That there could ever be,
And I will be there with you,
Throughout eternity.
