

Poem for Fathers

A day for celebration,
'Our Dads' are who its for,
A time to focus on them,
With love, our hearts out pour.

They stand beside our Mothers,
As parents, they do hold,
A task of great importance,
For children, they do mold,

What little sons look up to,
And daughters do revere,
They offer strength and wisdom,
They listen and they hear,

What children's voices ask for,
An understanding heart,
A commitment of forever,
That they will do their part,

To keep love's bonds as sacred,
A trust they will not break,
These ties that bind that hold them,
As family, they do make.

We have a loving Father,
Who gave us life so we,
Can celebrate each day with Him,
With joy, so we can be,

A family of forever,
Brothers, Sisters, All,
And live as One together,
Answering His call,

To give when givings called for,
To answer to the need,
To share each other's burdens,
With kindness — word and deed,

The Father's love is our love,
His light shines bright this day,
So follow closely, dear one,
Our Daddy leads the way.
