

The Invitation

I am right there within you,
In mind, I can be found,
Open now to Me, dear,
For we are deeply bound.

We move together, always,
If joining you do choose,
Alone no more, forever,
Unless you do refuse,

To open up to Me, there,
To let in your Best Friend,
To know of love's great presence,
A love that knows no end.

This is an invitation,
An earnest plea — request,
To find The Great Relationship,
The Friend who knows you best.

We're intertwined together,
As One, our hearts are bound,
We rapture in God's meaning,
Where living love is found.

You need but find your peace, there,
Quiet your thinking mind,
Open and invite Me in,
And here is what you'll find.

You'll find a Friend forever,
Who'll guide you, love you, care,
Who judges not, but sees you,
As sister, brother, there.

My invitation's issued,
Please open up to Me,
We'll be as One forever,
With Source, our Family.

10/13/2020. Sharing is encouraged, but please acknowledge the website. Thanks.

