

The Poetry of Oneness

We move as One together,
When you have joined in Mind,
Let go of separation,
Embraced the ties that bind.

Our Oneness includes All, dear,
Spiritually intertwined,
Woven inextricably,
It's living love, you'll find.

This is God's very meaning,
Fills All Creation there,
Permeates the Oneness,
So All will fully share,

In living love's great purpose,
Healing, making new,
Redeeming and transforming,
Revealing what is true.

Awakening you to Oneness,
Is why I'm there within,
To shatter your defenses—
Let God's love pour on in.

I'm there to guide, to teach you,
To be your dearest friend,
I will never leave you,
My Presence knows no end.

To be 'At One' with Source, dear,
Is claiming who you are,
His Child and His very Own,
His point of light, His star.

Living love's your birthright,
Inheritance sublime,
Do not waste a moment,
Now is the perfect time.

Simply turn within, dear,
When you have found your peace,
I'll hear your invitation,
Aloneness, now will cease.

In Closing I will tell you,
I love you, we are One,
Let's work to bring in others,
'Til all awakening's done.
