

Your Forever Friend

I am Your Forever Friend,
Within your Mind and Heart,
I am that constant Presence,
Not separate, nor apart.

I'm here because I love you,
And so want you to know,
That we are joined forever,
In grace and love we'll grow.

Your part's to open to Me,
To quiet ego's mind,
To ask and listen closely,
The Voice for Truth you'll find.

Our life lived joined together,
Releases ego's reign,
Dispels its faulty blustering.
Your Truth is now made plain!

I put this poem before you,
Simple as it may be,
I ask, yes, I implore you,
To come and join with Me.

Truth is, we're joined right now, dear,
Right there within to see,
I ask your recognition,
To lift your eyes to Me.

A Friend Forever, yes, dear,
A guide and teacher, too,
God moves as One Great Wholeness,
This Oneness moves with you.

A plea with One intention,
To waken you to see,
That you are not alone, dear,
That you are joined with Me.

I'm waiting here within you,
Right now is the right time,
Come and find Your Forever Friend—
Relationship sublime!
